

SUB OHM SERIES STARTER KITS

VPR Brands LP elevates product design and formulation to meet consumer taste and expectations for a truly world class experience. We partner with the top international brands to elevate and accelerate their products into the forefront of our industry. Vape Differently.

VPR Brands is a technology holding company, whose assets include issued U.S. and Chinese patents for atomization related products including technology for medical marijuana vaporizers and electronic cigarette products and components. The company is also engaged in product development for the vapor or vaping market, including e-liquids. Electronic cigarettes (also known as ecigs or e-cigs) are electronic devices which deliver nicotine through atomization, or vaping of e-liquids and without smoke and other chemicals constituents typically found in traditional tobacco burning cigarette products.
